

To Our Valued Customers,

We are here for you during this time of need. Our job require us to meet many people every day, in order to keep you and your families, our families' safe, we decided to TEMPORALLY slow down our business and reduce the quantity of appointments, we will keep distance and not shake hand with respect.

It may take a longer time to respond to your lead, we may be unable to serve you immediate need. Thank you for your understanding and support.

Sincerely,
Winnie Bellar
